Neighborhood Cleanup Day (Flyer attached)

Sat., Oct. 7, 8:00 am – 4:00 pm, Citywide

Mark your calendars for San Leandro's annual Neighborhood Cleanup Day. Residents are invited to participate in the Citywide Garage sale from 8:00 am to 1:00 pm. The City will publish a map and listing of participating addresses in the October 5 edition of the San Leandro Times (registration by September 27, 2017 is required). Residents may drop off appliances, furniture, mattresses, electronics, scrap metal, clean wood, tires, household batteries and fluorescent lamps at a designated recycling facility. For more information, visit the City's Solid Waste and Recycling webpage or call 577-6026.

An Evening with Patricia Polacco (Attached)

Mon. Oct. 9, 6:30 PM, Main Library 300 Estudillo Ave.

The acclaimed children's author, Patricia Polacco will present and read from her newest book, Remembering Vera, a true story of Vera, an amazing dog found as a stray by the US Coast Guard who became a hero and a friend. After her presentation, Polacco will be available to sign copies of her new book. The event is free and open to the public but reservations are requested.

Luna Mexicana with the Oakland Ballet Company (Attached)

Tues. Oct. 24, 6:30 PM – 8 PM, San Leandro Performance Arts Center, 250 Bancroft Ave.

The City of San Leandro in partnership with the San Leandro Unified School District is proud to bring the acclaimed Oakland Ballet Company's Día de los Muertos performance Luna Mexicana. This free family friendly performance is filled with festive dancing, colorful costumes and vibrant music including traditional Mexican folk music and witty electronic fusions. Audience members are encouraged to attend in Day of the dead attire. Event is free and open to the public but registration is required: www.lunamexicanasl.eventbrite.com

Council Information

Recruitment for Resident Administrative Board Begins Sept. 28

As part of the City's Community Care initiative, San Leandro created a new Resident Administrative Board that will hear code enforcement cases that are appealed by the property owner or are scheduled for abatement. The Board will be comprised of six members representing the City's six districts and will serve for two years. The application period began on Sept. 28 and will conclude on October 31. Residents from all districts are encouraged to apply. To learn more about Community Care or learn about this exciting opportunity, visit: www.sanleandro.org/communitycare.

San Leandro Community Center Hosts Flu Shot Clinic

Registered nurses from Sutter Care at Home will offer flu immunizations at the San Leandro Senior Community Center on Friday, October 6 from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. No appointment is required and participants will be served on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost for a regular flu shot is $5. There is no direct cost for participants who are covered by Medicare Part B (with no HMO affiliation) as Sutter Care will bill Medicare directly. For more information, contact Ely Hwang, Recreation Supervisor at 577-6079 or at ehwang@sanleandro.org

San Leandro Moon Festival

San Leandro's Asian Community Cultural Association of San Leandro is hosting the annual Moon Festival at Marina Park on Sunday Oct. 1 from 10 AM – 5 PM. Those attending are encouraged to bring blankets or lawn chairs. The City of San Leandro is a sponsor of the event and will have several City Department outreach booths at the event.

San Leandro Next

San Leandro Next is an initiative of the City of San Leandro Community Development Department providing news and updates on economic development and innovation. The following stories were posted since last week:
