COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

COVID-19 RELIEF
TEMPORARY OUTDOOR FACILITIES REGISTRATION

The City of San Leandro has established a registration process for restaurants and other commercial businesses seeking to utilize outdoor areas on public and private property in compliance with the applicable Alameda County Public Health Orders, and Governor’s Executive Orders. Businesses permitted to operate outdoors by Alameda County and listed as eligible in the Program Guidelines may participate. Filing a registration and complying with Program Guidelines grants businesses the ability to use outdoor areas on a temporary basis in locations that would otherwise require an Outdoor Facilities Permit or an Encroachment Permit.

I. REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

- Registration Fee: N/A
- Insurance (See insurance requirements on Registration Form)
- Signed copy of completed Temporary Outdoor Facilities Conformance Checklist
- If Temporary Outdoor Facility is located on a public property, submit photos within 5 business days

Submit completed checklist, insurance documents (scan or photo acceptable), and photos (if applicable) to covid19biz@sanleandro.org. Following submittal of checklist and insurance, and meeting other requirements below, operations may begin. City Staff will follow up if additional information is required or corrections to operations need to be made.

II. TYPE OF TEMPORARY OUTDOOR FACILITY
