Council Member Bryan Azevedo Voted to Serve as Vice Mayor

January 3rd City Council Meeting Vote was Unanimous for the 2023 Leadership Role

SAN LEANDRO, CA – At their first public meeting of 2023, the City Council voted unanimously for Council Member Bryan Azevedo to serve as the City’s Vice Mayor.

Reflecting on his appointment, Vice Mayor Azevedo stated, “It is an honor to have the confidence of my City Council colleagues to serve in this role. As I enter my third year of City Council service, I desire to continue uplifting the community through active communications, courting our business community with City Hall support, and caring for the land with my regular community clean-ups. I am optimistic of what 2023 will bring for San Leandro in terms of challenges and opportunities.”

Under the City Charter, in the absence of the Mayor, the Vice Mayor shall possess and perform the powers and duties of the Mayor.
