

San Leandro Public Library Curbside Summer Reading Program Prize Pickup Dates and Process

To pick up your summer reading program completion prize, come to the Main Library during our Contactless Summer Reading Program Prize Pickup hours

Plan a trip to the Main Library (300 Estudillo Ave.) during our Contactless SRP Prize Pickup Hours:

- Tuesday, Aug. 25 from 2:00pm-5:00pm
- Saturday, Aug. 29 from 10:00am-2:00pm
- Tuesday, Sept. 1 from 2:00pm-5:00pm

When you arrive at the library, park in the designated parking spots at the front of the library. There will be signs with further instructions to call library staff at 510-577-3960

You can also wait to pick up your prize until the Library reopens!

Call Library staff using the phone number listed on our signage (510-577-3960), then wait in your car.

Staff will gather your prize packs, based on the age of the finishers, and bring them out in a paper bag with your last name and first initial. Your bag will be placed on the No Contact Pickup table assigned to you, located in front of the library. Signs will clearly show table numbers.

Wait in your car until your items are placed on the assigned pickup table and staff have returned inside the library.

The pickup process will include no physical contact between staff and library members. Wait in your car until your items are placed on the No Contact Pickup table assigned to you and staff have returned inside the building.

For your safety and the safety of our staff, wear a face covering and stand at least 6 feet from staff and other library members. Staff will also be wearing face coverings when they place your items on the pickup table.

4: Pick up your bag and enjoy!
